

Attendee profile (Final)

~2,000

Participants

~850

Organizations

73

Countries

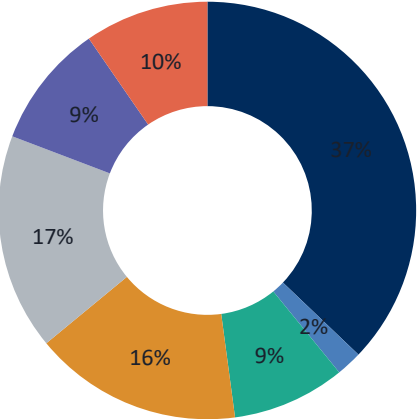

33%

Decision-makers

21%

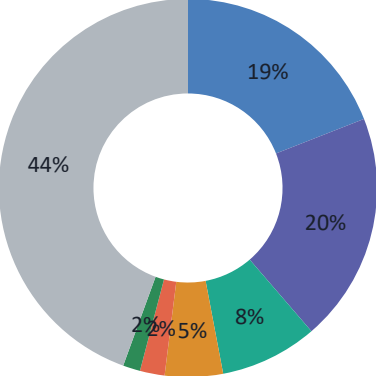

Dr / Prof

Seniority level

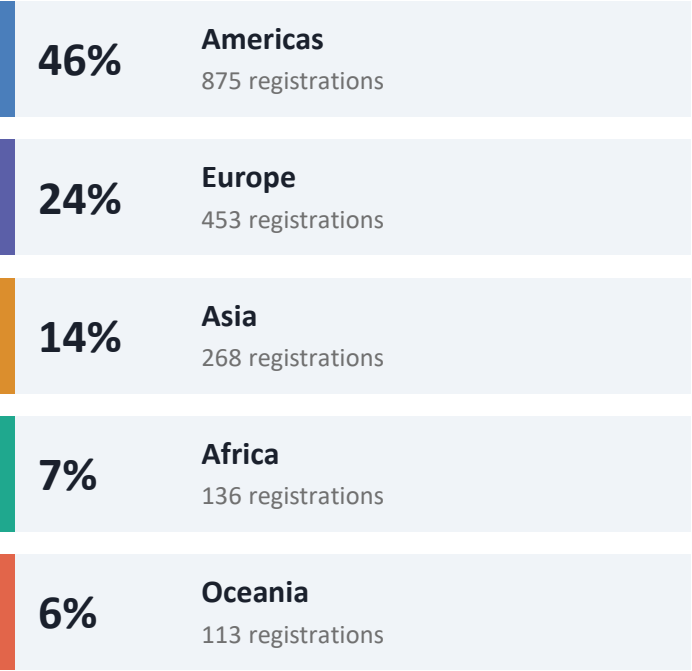

- C-Suite / Executive
- Manager / Lead
- Student / Early Career
- Director / Head
- Professional / Specialist
- Academic / Research
- Senior Professional

Organization type

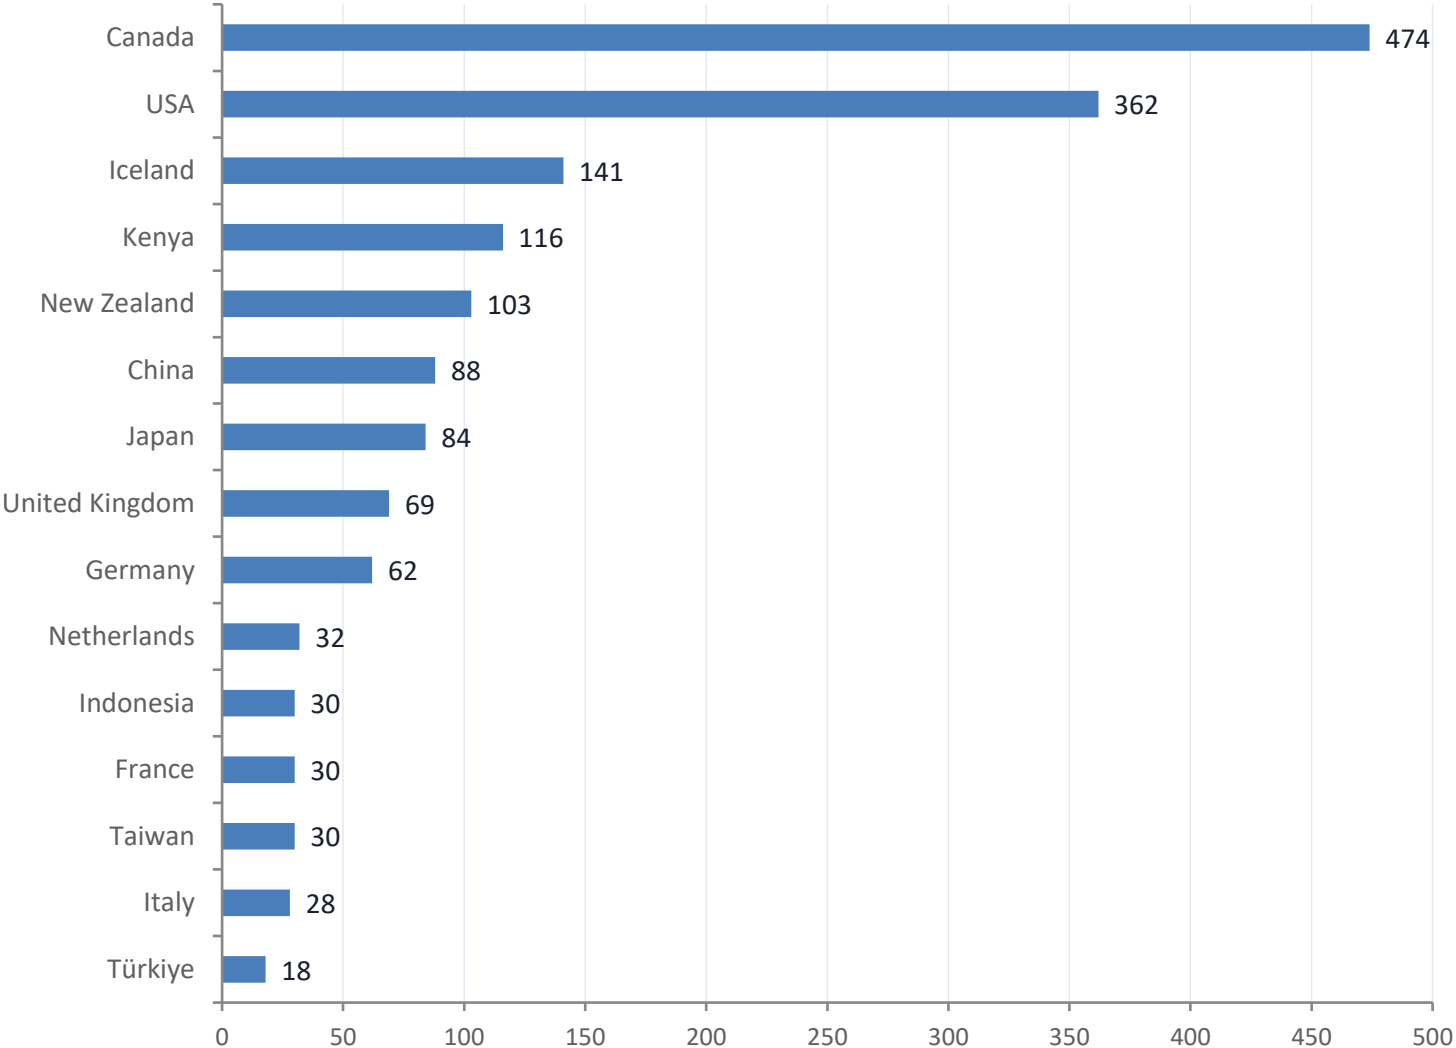

- Energy / Geothermal
- Technology / Services
- Industry Assoc. / NGO
- Other
- Academic / Research
- Government / Regulatory
- Finance / Investment

Geographic reach

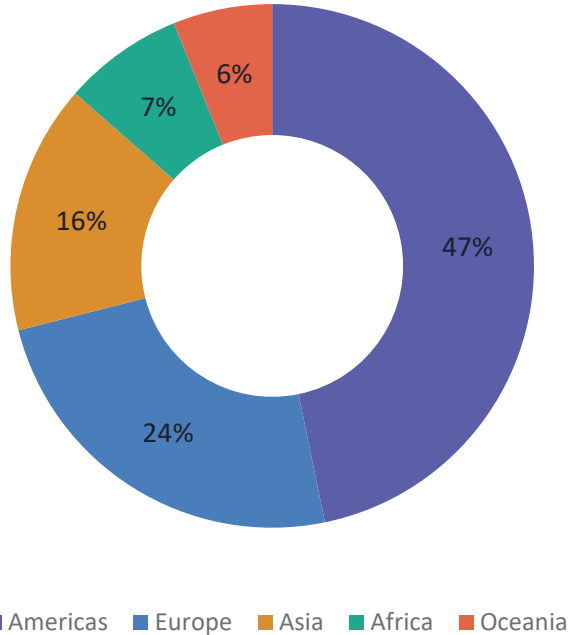

Registrations by country (Final)

2,000+ participants from over 70 countries across 5 continents

By region

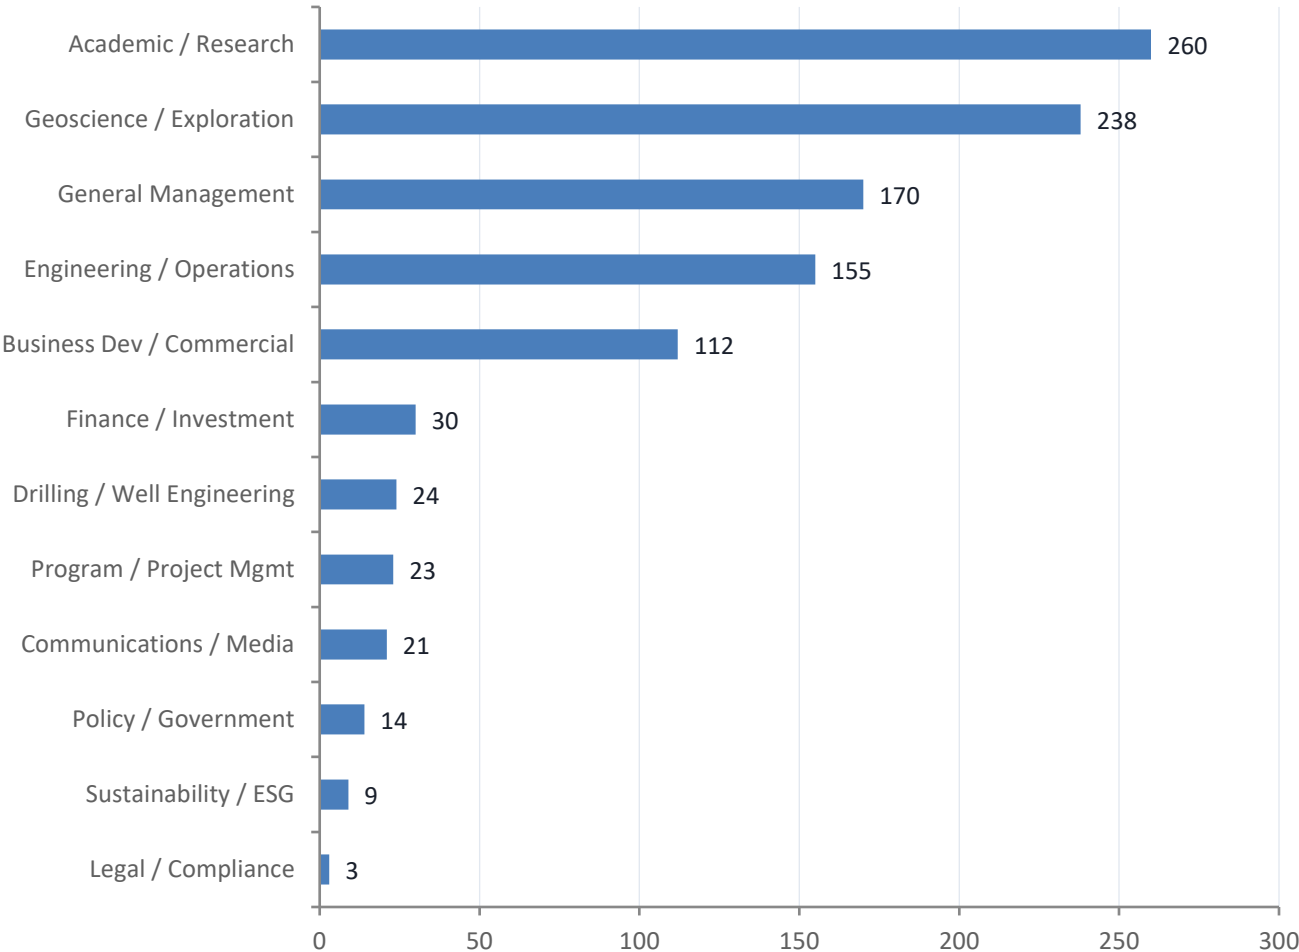

Highlights

- 15 countries sent a single delegate
- Canada + USA = 836 (44% of total)
- 73 countries registered across the event period

Functional profile & key stakeholders

Attendees by functional area

Key stakeholder groups

Investors & financiers

~53 attendees from finance, investment, and advisory organizations including development finance institutions, venture capital, and audit firms

C-Suite executives

483 CEOs, Presidents, Managing Directors, CFOs, CTOs, and VPs — 25% of all attendees. Senior decision-making power across the industry

Government & policy

94 attendees from government, regulatory bodies, and ministries — including ministers and senior officials from geothermal-active nations

Geoscience & drilling

262 geoscientists and drilling engineers — the technical heart of the geothermal industry, representing core expertise

Academic & research

372 from universities and research institutes, including 397 with doctoral or professorial credentials (21% of all attendees)

Sponsors & exhibitors

359 registered from sponsor and exhibitor organizations — companies with active commercial interest in the geothermal sector